2. BLOWIN IN THE WIND

D G D

How many roads must a man walk down

G D

Before you call him a man?

D G D

Yes, 'n' how many seas must a white dove sail

G A *

Before she sleeps in the sand?

D G D

Yes, 'n' how many times must the cannon balls fly

G D

Before they're forever banned?

G A D Bm

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind,

G A D

The answer is blowin' in the wind.

Yes, and how many years must a mountain exist

Before it is washed to the sea?

Yes, and how many years can some people exist

Before they're allowed to be free?

Yes, and how many times can a man turn his head

And pretend that he just doesn't see?

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind

The answer is blowin' in the wind

Yes, and how many times must a man look up

Before he can see the sky?

Yes, and how many ears must one man have

Before he can hear people cry?

Yes, and how many deaths will it take 'til he knows

That too many people have died?

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind

The answer is blowin' in the wind

As I was walking that ribbon of highway
I saw above me that endless skyway;
I saw below me that golden valley;
This land was made for you and me.

(Repeat Chorus)

I've roamed and rambled and I followed my footsteps
To the sparkling sands of her diamond deserts;
And all around me a voice was sounding;
This land was made for you and me.

For the times, they are a-chang - in'

Come writers and critics, Who prophesize with your pen,
And keep your eyes wide, The chance won't come again
And don't speak too soon, For the wheel's still in spin
And there's no tellin' who That it's namin'
For the loser now Will be later to win
For the times they are a-changin'

Come senators, congressmen, Please heed the call
Don't stand in the doorway, Don't block up the hall
For he that gets hurt, Will be he who has stalled
The battle outside and its ragin'
It'll soon shake your windows, And rattle your walls
For the times they are a-changin'

Come mothers and fathers, Throughout the land
And don't criticize What you can't understand
Your sons and your daughters Are beyond your command

Your old road is rapidly age-in'
Please get out of the new one, If you can't lend your hand
For the times they are a-changin'

The line it is drawn, The curse it is cast
The slow one now, Will later be fast
As the present now, Will later be past
The order is rapidly fadin'
And the first one now, Will later be last
For the times they are a-changin'
